

LEGALIZATION PROCESS

The legalization process differs from country to country. The Company should contact with the Vietnamese Embassy/Consulate in their home country for the specific requirement.

Basically, the "legalization process" of a document involves in following steps:

1

Notarization

This is the attestation by a Notary Office that the signature appearing on the document is true and genuine or the documents are true copies

2

Authentication

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs certifies the documents

3

Legalization

The Vietnamese embassy/consulate where the document is to be presented can now declare and accept the signature, seal or stamp appearing on the document as genuine

Legalized document is translated into Vietnamese and arranged for notarization for purpose of application submission.

Disclaimer: All information, content and material available on the site are for general informational purposes only.

GET IN TOUCH

www.n2nconsulting.com